Director Report: No director report this evening

Officers Report:

President...

- August 9th there will be a “clearance” fair where parents can come to the school and have help getting their clearances.
- Next meeting we will go over the open houses of the different schools . SFMA will have a table set up at the schools.
- Meet the instrument night went well

Treasurer...New budget reviewed and approved

Secretary...Minutes are on web site and have been approved for the month of May 2016.

Assistant Treasure...

- SPA is getting ready to close. Everything is up to date for the exception of the Reading Phillies Tickets.

Apparently Reading Phillies is still waiting for money from tickets that have been ordered.

- The directors have been notified of what seniors still have money in their account. They have 3 options for the use of that money. 1. Donate it back to SFMA where it will be used for scholarship money to help assist students in need. 2. Will it to another student, and 3. Use it for anything music related, submit a receipt and the money will be given to that student.

Committee Reports:

Concessions..Everything is under control for graduation night. Lisa will get together with Beth Studt to help her with the transition to take over concessions for next season.

Ways and Means

- Idea on having a trivia night was mentioned
